Please note that mission trips require FLEXIBILITY, as circumstances may change unexpectedly. The itinerary provided is only a proposed schedule and is subject to adjustment. We encourage participants to remain adaptable and open to modifications as the trip progresses to ensure a positive and impactful experience. For family members back home, please do not worry if you are unable to get ahold of your trip participant. Communication can be inconsistent, especially when traveling in the village, and there may be times when contact is difficult. Rest assured, the team is safe and well, and updates will be provided as possible. If you have any questions or concerns, please get in touch with the USA contacts provided, and they will do their best to assist you.
